Dear Nick:

Just a note to thank AIS and you for the excellent service you have provided over the last year. The decision we made approximately four years ago to switch to AIS for our document printing services has been justified many times over, in the form of cost savings, together with timely service in the event of problems with any of the equipment. AIS' dedication to provide a valuable service to our company is much appreciated.

Las Vegas Athletic Clubs is looking forward to our mutually beneficial relationship in the future. Thanks again for your personal commitment to providing this level of service to our company.

Sincerely Yours,

Nick,

Thank you for your help resolving our document issues. Implementing high speed copiers for network printing and scanning has saved us significant time and money. In addition, the service that you and your team have provided has always been top notch. The effort that AIS makes to provide timely and quality service truly shows through every day.

Sincerely,
