Manufacturing

“ Since we started using our digital invoicing process with eCopy ShareScan, we have not misplaced a single vendor invoice. And we have improved our cash flow by almost 25% and reduced late vendor payments by 30%. All of this adds up to better service to Elmontage customers and an improved working climate for its staff. ”

~ Lars Ringbrant, President, Elmontage H&K AB

Key Issues in the Manufacturing Industry Engineering Change Orders (ECO):

Manufacturing companies must distribute, track and archive every Engineering Change Order (ECO) generated throughout the development and manufacturing process for every piece of equipment, part and assembly it makes. Between copying, manually distributing and sending the documents overnight, a massive, inconvenient and very costly paper management problem begins to take shape.

ISO Certification:

ISO 9000 is a series of international standards on quality management and assurance published by the International Standards Organization (ISO).

To support a bid for ISO 9000 certification, a manufacturing organization must collect, update, and share its large library of ISO documents with single point access to the latest documentation.

How eCopy Can Help

- Enables scanned documents to be text indexed at the copier for searching and retrieving from a document management system.
- Transforms an image file to editable text at the desktop for conversion to PDF, MS-Word, or Internet browser files.
- Offers a flexible range of security options to adhere to company standards.
- Facilitates the instant exchange of critical paperwork over a local network or the Internet.
- Leverages the existing office infrastructure of hardware, networking and applications to speed business transaction cycles.
- Slashes long-distance fax and overnight courier costs.
- Standard and easy to use interface ensures that employees will quickly and consistently use the eCopy solution-- "no training required".
