What do we do?

Whether you're seeking to conserve financial resources, respond to rapid growth or meet an unexpected temporary need, Storr has the products and resources to develop a rental solution that's right for you. Our rental experts use state-of-the-art design and specification software to ensure quick and accurate layouts and we can blend rental, new product purchases, leasing and other services as necessary, depending on your specific requirements. Products currently available from our rental program include:

- Workstations and cubicles
- Laminate casegoods
- Wood casegoods
- Seating
- Filing and storage
- Reception solutions
- Computer furniture

How we do it.

As a member of the Office Furniture Rental Alliance (OFRA), a nationwide network of business furniture rental experts, we can custom-tailor a rental program that gives you all the flexibility you need at a cost you can afford. And delivery from our extensive inventory of available product in as little as 48 hours!

Why do you need it?

There are several reasons why furniture rental may represent an attractive option for your workplace. Are you bringing in temporary workers for a special project? Planning a special event or meeting? Taking part in an upcoming convention or trade show? Organizing a special training program that calls for additional office space? Whatever the reason, Storr's rental program has the products and the flexibility to meet your needs quickly and cost-effectively.
